Friday's News.

Local Lines.

Kestel.

Fish today.

Hot, or cold.

Don't bet on the weather.

Valentine's Day, next Wednesday.

Smoke Don Carlos cigars at Paul Ruben's.

Sneak thieves are reported about town.

Imported and Domestic Cigars, at Paul Ruben's.

Fresh oysters at the Box Ton today.

Served up as you like them.

There are several characters about the streets that are evidently looking for a job in the chain gang.

The choicest Luce, Prang's and Com'e Valentines, at

GEO. F. COATS'.

A new arrival of Brix's Varieties in the person of Mr. Harry Rivers, negro delineator, will appear to night.

We received a communication today from Father Blois, which came too late for the day but which will appear in to-morrow's issue.

Mr. P. C. Bicknell returns yesterday evening from an extended trip on the Verde. He reports lots of snow up there and weather cold.

"I did have rheumatism," said Mr. Robert Fletcher, of the Chicago Irish Tribune, and was cured by St. Jacobs Oil. I think it a wonderful, never-failing remedy."

A petrified human form was found in Pennsylvania, the other day, one thousand feet under the ground.

Sometimes it is found necessary to bury book agents as deep as that, but as a general thing seven hundred feet is found sufficient.

Remember the grand matinee to-morrow afternoon at Stroud's Theatre. The entertainment will be chaste and at the same time full of fun. Be sure and not forget the appointment.

The local editor of the Springfield, Mass., Republican, Mr. J. H. Mabbitt, says: "We have used St. Jacobs Oil in our family for rheumatism, and found it to be a first-class thing."—Boston Herald.

Miss Alice Mansfield will appear to-night and to-morrow night in her specialty, the "Flag of All Nations" with a grand Goddess of Liberty tableau in which she will appear as Goddess of Liberty, one of the grandest spectacles to be seen anywhere.

The editor failed last evening to include his usual lute stimulus which he is wont to find on the doorstep of his domicile in the vesper hours. It had gone off somewhere to tickle the capillary coating of some other fellow's gastric apparatus, bucket and all. We hope the bucket will digest easily; we pray that the milk may turn into the hardest kind of a forty-pound Limburger cheese and double its capacity for nasal titillation every day for the next one hundred and fifty years. May it rest lightly on his stomach. We trust our friends will pardon any feeling in this matter; but the fellow got away with the only chance we had had at anything but water all day long.

Sandy Afflicted.

"My boy was badly afflicted with rheumatism," said Mr. Barton, of the great store firm of Redway &amp; Barton of this city to one of our reporters. "We doctored him with St. Jacobs Oil that I finally determined to try it. Two bottles of the oil cured him."—Cincinnati Inquirer.

Saturday Afternoon Performance.

A grand entertainment will be given at Stroud's Theatre on Saturday afternoon, 10th inst., at 2 o'clock sharp—two hours and a half of good solid fun. Everything will be conducted in order, so that you may bring your family and see a refined performance without coarseness. Mr. Kohler has selected the best act and farces for the occasion. Admission 50 cents; children 25 cents. The season will be closed during the show. Entrance to theatre on Montezuma street. Come early for a good seat.

The following artists of merit will appear: Mr. John Cooke, the great clog dancer and comedian; Mrs. J. Cooke, the charming soubrette and vocalist; Mr. John Comstock, the favorite young actor; together with the eminent Dutch comedian and general performer, C. Kohler.

Our dispatches of a day or two since made the Hon. A. D. Lemon appear as speaking in favor of the present Legislature's legalizing certain illegal acts of the last Legislature, and therein our dispatches were in error. Mr. Lemon made a strong argument against that proposition and proposes that the last Legislature shall stand on its own bottom.

The confirmation of the reciprocity treaty with Mexico is likely to be deferred for some time.

By PRIVATE LETTER from Hon. A. D. Lemon, we are informed that the School Bill will pass the Council as amended by the Council Committee on Education, in which amendments are included Mr. Henry Orme's suggestion as to children attending school out of their district, and the HERALD suggestion concerning the levy and collection of special school taxes. Quite a number of other amendments have been made to the bill as printed, and it is regarded as an excellent school law.

SUGAR and molasses seem to absorb a wonderful deal of time in Congress. In fact, there is a tremendous effort being made by parties to put the sugar business in such a shape that it can be controlled by an immense monopoly. The treaty with Mexico, now being considered, has the biggest kind of a lump of sugar in it; the tariff sees the lump; the Hawaiian treaty hugs it affectionately; our own sugar producers are being crushed by its immense weight. The time is likely to come when the whole American people will be compelled to use foreign sugar that is handled by two or three companies and for which they will pay two or three prices. There is a point at which the consolidation of capital ceases to be a benefit to the people and that point is just where the capitalists begin to crowd the costs of any article beyond their ordinary ratio to the costs of other goods consumed.

The question as to whether the office of Territorial Superintendent of Public Instruction is elective or appointive has been raised. Governor Trille takes the ground that, under the U. S. Revised Statutes, Section 1887, the office is to be filled by the Governor appointing and the Council confirming. Our Councilman, Hon. A. D. Lemon, made a strong argument in favor of the law as it has been, but the opinion seems to prevail that the Governor's view of the matter is correct, and that it is his duty to appoint the Superintendent. The section of the statutes referred to reads as follows:

SEC. 1827. All Township, District, and County officers, except Justices of the Peace, and general officers of the militia, shall be appointed or elected in such manner as may be provided by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of each Territory; and all other officers not herein provided for, the Governor shall nominate and lay with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council of each Territory shall appoint; but in the first instance when a new Territory is hereafter created by Congress the Governor may appoint all the officers, etc., etc.

The Hon. S. F. Webb, member of the House from this county, has, as our dispatches have informed us, introduced a bill into the Legislature memorializing Congress concerning the consolidation of the S. P. R. R. with other roads, for which purpose there is now a bill pending at Washington. The introduction of the bill in our Legislature is but a link in the general fight being made "all along the line" against the move which the Southern Pacific is making. The opposition to the move seems to arise from two sources. First, it is thought that the move is one which would give to the S. P. R. R. the lands which have been forfeited by the Texas Pacific and Atlantic and Pacific railroad companies by failures to fulfill the provisions of their charters. Second, it is claimed that the act of consolidation would make the S. P. R. R. a federal corporation, and that as such it would not be liable to taxation by the States or Territories through which it might pass. These are the real points of the case, though the discussion will necessarily take a wide range, even going back to the old stamping ground of Democracy, "State's Rights," in considering the question as to whether a State would not have the right to tax the corporation within its jurisdiction, even though it were a federal corporation. As we have intimated, the proposition in Congress has awakened a sharp opposition from California to Texas, inclusive, though it may be that when the matter is properly ventilated it will be found that there is nothing dangerous to the people or to a State through which the road might pass, though we imagine that the question will be as difficult to settle as State's Rights itself, unless the railroad company should be willing to accept such modifications of the bill as to quiet all questions now under consideration. It might be proper to state in this connection, however, that the matter does not take the form of a political question, anywhere, Democrats and Republicans being found arrayed on either side.

This contract for printing and binding the Legislative Journals has been awarded to the Nebraska State Journal office, and the Territory is supposed to have made money by the award. Has it? Are the Journals of this Territory that labor and starve and build up the Territory for the people, that being in millions of capital, that lead railroads over her deserts, that set the hardy farmer to work in our valleys, that stand it to be swindled out of one half of their subscriptions and take their advertisements out in eggs at half a dollar a dozen, are they to receive no consideration at the hands of the Territory or its people? Suppose a company of ten persons on an island engaged in developing a mine that had a dollar among them, that they wished for the general use an article which one of them could furnish for fifty cents, but instead they send off fifty cents to a distant place for the article; do they really grow richer by the operation? Is there more money in circulation among them and therefore a chance for members of the company to accumulate more? Are the members of the company able to pay as much for goods with their remaining sixty cents as they would have been had the hundred cents been left to circulate among them? Can business go on as healthily with the sixty cents as when there were one hundred cents? We do not think so. We cannot see that the Territory has gained anything by sending away its funds. Better have paid more and kept the money at home in circulation where it would stimulate and build up the vital elements of our Territorial organization rather than sap the very life that is in them. Strike every newspaper in Arizona out of existence to-day and ere another decade her hills and valleys would be relegated to the care of the wild Apache. We stand by an economic administration of our Territorial affairs every time but it must be true economy; we do not believe it is true economy to send funds out of the Territory when by so doing the leading interests of the Territory must suffer thereby.

[From Wednesday's Daily.]

The Chinese New Year began with a roar last night at midnight.

Travel is lively, the coaches both ways being well laden.

Tombstone is suffering from a superabundance of clipped coin.

Wells, Fargo &amp; Co.'s express carries goods over 32,500 miles of road.

Six passengers left by the Prescott bound coach, this forenoon, and eight by the Maricopa coach.

The trip from San Francisco to New Orleans is to be made in five days.

The "remains" of the Tiger Restaurant were sold at auction at the courthouse by that lively auctioneer, E. W. Wiley, this forenoon.

The Tucson murderers, Moyer, Gibson and Murphy, who escaped from jail in that place last fall have been seen not far from Florence, lately, all well armed and mounted.

The HERALD office had the honor of a pleasant call this morning from Hon. J. W. Dorrington and J. F. Knapp of the House. They are on their way to Yuma.

The old well established barber business is represented in today's HERALD by a neat advertisement.

Mr. Lühr's enterprise and pluck has built up a nice business in the past two years. Bats not cold are furnished at all hours, and customers will find the proprietor skilled and obliging at all times.

The Legislative Prison Commission, consisting of the Hon. J. F. Dorrington, J. F. Knapp, J. F. Dorrington, and Wm. Graves arrived by this morning's coach from Prescott and went out on the noon coach for Maricopa. The Commission consists of some of our leading legislators and a thorough overhauling of prison affairs may be expected.

[From Thursday's Daily.]

County officers mourn the absence of something to do. Things are remarkably peaceful.

Mr. D. C. Kline left today for a short visit to his mining claims in the Harconau Mountains.

Harper's Weekly, for this week comes to our table full of fine engravings of unusual interest.

The Portable Electric Light Company advertise their convenient and economic electric lamp in today's HERALD.

One of the finest teams we have seen lately is the six-man team of Mr. Smith, which came in from the railroad this morning.

Henry Ward Beecher has decided to visit Arizona the coming season. He will pitch his tent for several days near the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.—Mtnr.

Mr. J. Stinson left this morning's coach for Prescott, to attend the preliminary examination of the parties concerned in the late shooting scrape in Tonto Basin.

Mr. D. Balz has let a contract to S. E. Patton for the construction of a building in the southern part of town and the workmen are now engaged in its construction.

Mr. S. E. Patton, the well known contractor and builder, yesterday concluded a contract with Mr. Ladd for the erection of a house on his late purchase in the southwestern part of town.

Mr. Jas. Stewart, the efficient superintendent of the stage company, is in town attending to business of the company. Mr. Stewart will be nearly omnipresent as mortals get to be on this side the river.

The actors of the two variety houses in Tucson had a general collision a day or two since, which resulted in putting a number of them under bonds to keep the peace, and in increasing the funds of the city treasury to the extent of about $50.

That interesting periodical, the Arizona Methodist, edited by the Rev. G. H. Adams, is issued from the HERALD office to-day, and will be mailed to the church at large in this Territory and elsewhere. It is full of interesting reading matter and speaks well for the enterprise of its founder.

Mr. Kohler, the enterprising manager of Stroud's Theatre, has made a move to open Saturday afternoon matinees at that cozy little place, in which the plays will be refined, the music good, and nothing will be permitted that would offend the most fastidious. We hope the entertainment will be well patronized.

Telegraphic.

Special to the HERALD.—Prescott, Feb. 6.—Master's mining assessment bill was ordered to final reading.

Several ladies are present today in the Council chamber.

Mining legislation is receiving friendly attention in both houses.

Moye Wicks' Apache memorial passed the Council.

Davis' act to allow persons and corporations to change their names by petition to the District Court.

Hughes opposed the act. It was mainly special order next Monday.

Nothing of importance in the House.

Special to the HERALD.—COUNCIL.

Prescott, Feb. 5.—The Council today passed several bills, one to amend the law relating to the boards at all crossings and forks of roads.

HOUSE.

Webb introduced a bill for the purpose of preventing the S. P. R. R. from consolidating with other roads.

Ellis' bill forbidding the carrying of deadly weapons, has passed the House.

The House railway bill will pass today, but will fail in the Council.

WATER LEGISLATION.

Water legislation is taking much of the time of the Council. A number of acts have been introduced on that subject today.

There is a report going that a mining bill is soon to be published in Tucson.

DISTRICT COURTS.

An Act allowing the District Courts to change the name of a person and corporation passed the Court today.

INVESTIGATION.

REMOSTRANCE.

Tombstone demonstrates against Savage's Firemen's Act.

SCHOOL BILLS.

Lemon's School Bill Committee has split and the business has been made a special order for to-morrow.

Arbitrary Mexican Officials.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 2.—The Alta publishes a letter from a California minister of the school of Adrians, of San Francisco, dated at La Paz, Mexico. The writer complains that in December he anchored in the town of La Paz and, looting, looting, in the bay near La Paz. He was seized by the customs authorities, taken to La Paz and thrown into jail. It was refused him any advice or communication with the American consul. The vessel is detained under suspicion of smuggling.

Official in Trouble.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 2.—Clas D. Bunker, commissioner of immigration, a state appointive officer, was arrested to-day on three warrants, each charging him with felony in appropriating to his own use sums collected as fees of his office and due the state, aggregating $32,000. He furnished bail in $15,000. His office has recently been subjected to a thorough investigation by a legislative committee. Bunker and his friends claim that a full investigation will show that there has been no misappropriation.

A Reprieve.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 2.—Sin Lum, a Chinaman under sentence of death whose execution was to have taken place to-day, has been granted a reprieve for one month by Gov. Stanford.

The Mysterious Tacoma Disaster.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 2.—Later news from the wrecked steamer Tacoma leaves the fate of those remaining on board still doubtful.

The second mate had charge on deck when the ship struck, but neither saw nor heard breakers until the ship went on the sand among them.

The ship was supposed to be well off the shore and the only theory in explanation of the disaster is a possible derangement of the compass. The night was dark but foggy.

Late Telegrams.

Gen. Pope has ordered to Oklahoma all available troops at Fort Reno and still to expel Capt. Payne and his raiders.

On Saturday, San Francisco closed as follows: April 1-17; May 1-10; June 1-17.

The Mexican reciprocity treaty has not been sent to the Senate. It is rumored that it may not be sent this session, but if there be a called session after the 1st of March it will then be forwarded with the President's recommendation for immediate action.

A blizzard is prevailing over Kansas, and the stream are so deeply frozen that stock can get no water.

Fifty bandits have captured the town of Huacana, northeast Mexico, and are holding the prefect, the municipal judge, and nine justices for ransom.

Ranger, of Phoenix Park, Ireland, will positively identify the persons arrested as the men he saw driving from the scene of the murder of Burke and Cavendish.

A dispatch from Chicago says the heaviest snowstorm in the history of the Territory fell last week. Cattle are suffering for grass. The temperature is 30 degrees below zero with no wind; track on the Union Pacific are blocked, but the passengers are furnished with food. When the winds come the drifts will block the trains in places for four hundred miles.
